

PREFACE

As publication number 132 of the "Rajasthan Oriental Series" the present volume catalogues some 1950 manuscripts falling between accession number 28147 to 30518. The different textual and physical details of the manuscripts are given in eleven columns in accordance with the scheme drawn up by the Ministry of Education, Govt of India. For convenience of reference extracts of the beginning, end, and colophon of about sixty noteworthy manuscripts in Devanagari are given at the end of the volume. An Index to the title of works, authors and commentators enhances the utility of the Catalogue.

Among manuscripts of particular interest are the "Smārta-bodha-saṅgraha" (136/28472) as a testimony to the love for learning among the rulers. It is a work on the Dharmaśāstra. The "Viṣṇu-Sahasranāma" (1136/28606) with a commentary in Hindi dated V S 1754 provides enough material for the linguist as well. Mādhava Bhaṭṭa in his "Sūra-Simha-varṇa-praśastī-kāvya" (1476/28611) dated V S 1777 has given us an panegyric account of the rulers of Bikaner which can be utilised with profit in dynastic histories. The two valuable commentaries on the well known works of the poet Kālidāsa (1460/29468) and (1468/28768) add to the existing commentaries on the two texts. For students of grammar the "Vardhamāna Maṅglā tīkā" of the Sārasvata Vyākaraṇa (1579/28699) of V.S. 1783 has its own value. The "Rekhā Ganita" (1753/28623), "Pancāṅgādhikāra" (1826/-28621) and the "Prabodha Sudhākara" (1829/28420) are excellent works on astronomy. The earliest manuscript recorded in the present catalogue is an incomplete copy of Hemādri's 'Caturavarga Cīntāmaṇi' (122/30029) dated V.S 1530.

The manuscripts catalogued do not show many hitherto unknown works, but their value lies mainly in providing information about further copies of known works, which will be useful for their critical editions. Secondly, we find that some of the smaller works published long back have gone out of print to the extent that even the details of their publications are not readily traceable.

For the sake of uniformity we have not changed the conventional abbreviation 'f' and 'ff' for 'folio' and 'folios', as adopted in the previous set of catalogues.

Shri M Vinayasagar and Dr. D B. Khsirsagar have prepared the catalogue with due care and labour. Shri Girdhar Vallabh Dadhich, Junior Technical Assistant, did much of the proof reading with the utmost devotion. The Manager of the Himalaya Press is to be thanked for completing the work despite several handicaps.

For errors and omissions, which might have crept in, I seek the indulgence of the readers.
